Oct 25 1863

Mrs Bates has been mistaken by Mr Calvert
to tell you after lines to tell you that you can have the law
of provision to have
by me as I belong to the company and in
regs with him provided
you have not left with your book blank I will take the cars train from Chambersburg the 26th of this month
you can depart either
at Concord or Harrisburg and meet me there

that night you
will please to give the other Ladies
word in the meantime
and if you decline any thank it is Washington with their compliments but it
yours &c J. J. Rice
