Hello Brother.
How goes the battle? Pretty hot I imagine. Things are still the same for me & I'm in fine shape. I guess you know how it is now with the mail situation. Just write as often as you can and I'll do the same. I'm still in Italy & the going is still rough but I don't think it will be long now with this invasion on it ought to be over soon. I hope. So you want to know if I left any girls heart broken in the places I've been, I wouldn't worry about it. They don't all know my real name. But I have left quite a few in this country. Frank if you were here to get around this way I wouldn't go thru the trouble of trying to fool me, because you will have one hell of a time. Lets just hope that we meet some day. I wish to hell I could tell you more about myself. I could write a book but you know how it is. Well Frank lets hope this letter finds you in the best of health. Living & likewise of luck

Brother
Mario

V-Mail Service provides the most expeditious dispatch and reduces the weight of mail to and from personnel of our Armed Forces outside the continental United States. When addressed to points where micro-film equipment is operated, a miniature photographic negative of the message will be made and sent by the most expeditious transportation available for reproduction and delivery. The original message will be destroyed after the reproduction has been delivered. Messages addressed to or from points where micro-film equipment is not operated will be transmitted in their original form by the most expeditious means available.

INSTRUCTIONS

(1) Write the entire message plainly on the other side within marginal lines.
(2) PRINT the name and address in the two panels provided. Addresses to members of the Armed Forces should include rank or rating of the addressee, unit to which attached, and APO or Naval address.
(3) Fold, seal, and deposit in any post office letter drop or street letter box.
(4) Enclosures must not be placed in this envelope and a separate V-Mail letter must be sent if you desire to write more than one sheet.
(5) V-Mail letters may be sent free of postage by members of the Armed Forces. When sent by others postage must be prepaid at domestic rates (3c ordinary mail, 6c if air mail is desired).
