Edgar Allan Poe
Literary Society Minutes.

The first meeting of the "A" society was held on February 14, 1911.

Temporary officers were chosen as follows president Grace Bishop; Vice-president Margaret Blow; Secretary Edna Campbell.

A committee consisting of misses Elizabeth Pugh, Elizabeth Taylor, Mattie Ruffin was chosen to draw up the constitution.

The second meeting of the "A" society was held Friday, march 17.

The constitution was read by the chairman of the constitution committee miss Mattie Ruffin. Each article was read and voted upon separately.

An amendment to an expression in Article II. section 2 was proposed by miss Margaret Blow. The amendment was that the expression female should be changed to young ladies. This was voted upon and adopted.

An amendment to the wording of the Constitution was proposed by miss Maria Graham. The amendment proposed was, that the masculine pronoun used throughout the constitution be changed to the feminine pronoun. This was voted upon and adopted.