It was proposed and adopted that for the present the attendance should not be compulsory.

The Constitution was adopted with the amendments named above.

It was suggested by Miss M. Graham that Governor Thomas J. Jarvis be elected as an honorary member of the "A" Society. As our constitution requires that the name of an honorary member be presented at one meeting, and voted on the next, this was left until the next meeting.

The election of permanent officers was postponed until the next meeting, to be held the following week.

The third meeting of the "A" Society was held March 22. Officers were elected as follows; president Miss Grace Bishop; Vice-president Miss Margaret Blow; Secretary Miss Edna Campbell; Treasurer Miss Bloomer Wynne; Sargeant-at-Arms Miss Agnes Smith; Auditor Miss Blanche Lancaster.

Misses Bishop, Lancaster and Campbell were elected by a unanimous vote.

After the election of the president and vice-president from the senior class a suggestion made by Miss McKinney was voted upon and adopted, that the remaining officers should come from the classes as follows; Secretary from the junior class; Treasurer from second year class; Auditor from the first year class; Sargeant-at-Arms from the one year class; Critic from senior class; and that hereafter the president should be a
