towards having oil portraits of these two men made by good artists and hung upon the walls of this school.

The election of marshals was then held misses Proctor, Johnston and Smith were elected.

A motion was made and carried that the necessary books for the society be bought, and also that the charter members write their names therein.

The fifth meeting of the Edgar Allen Poe society was held may the 20.

The names of the charter members were written by them in the secretary's book. As a few were absent a motion was made and carried that vacant places be left for their names.

A motion was made that the society select the colors, but as the Lanier society had not acted in conjunction with this society in the plans discussed the motion was not carried.

A second motion was made that as the Lanier society had all ready chosen their colors, that the Edgar Allen Poe should choose its too. This motion was carried. The colors selected by the color committee to be voted upon were purple and white; gold and white; red and white; red and white were chosen.