chose the right hand and got list no. I. We then posted these lists for the new girls to see which Society they belonged to."

No other business was brought forward. The new members were ushered in in a body by the chairman of the Inter Society Committee and took the oath of membership. The part of the Constitution pertaining to the purpose of the Society and duties of the members was read to them.

The Secretary was ordered to have the new members sign their names in alphabetical order. Because of the lack of time, the motion was carried that this be postponed.
