Jan. 6 1912

The Edgar Allan Poe Society met Saturday night, January 6, 1912. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

A motion was made that all business be postponed until a call meeting on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Louie Belle Pittman, chairman of the Program Committee took charge of the meeting and the following program was rendered:

1. Poe as a Genius — Mary Moore
2. The Lark of Amontellado — Jennie Brown Morrill
3. Poem — Isropel — Mildred Moore
4. Westminister Churchyard — Eula Proctor
5. Poem — Ulalume — (Love Poem) — Lalla Pritchard
6. Clipping from Boston Paper — Alice Medlin
7. Life of Poe (Defense) — Blanche Lancaster

Jan. 9. 1912.

There was a call meeting of the Society Tuesday afternoon Jan. 9.

The chairman re-read a report on the Halloween Party. She promised to get an account of it from the paper (Reflector) and paste it in this book. We made $34.40 on play recently given by the two Societies. 17.50 each Society.

A motion was made that the $22.~~50~~00 which was raised last year for Portrait fund be deposited in the Bank, in the name of the Edgar Allan Poe Society.

The Treasurer reported that we now have $25.31 in the Treasury.

It was decided that we get a motto from Poe if we can.

The President appointed the following committees:

To arraigne plan for program for entire year:
1. Louie Belle Pittman.
2. Sadie Exum
3. Blanche Lancaster.

For next regular meeting:
Lalla Pritchard
Jennie Brown Morrill
Willie Ragsdale.