Jan. 27.

There was a call meeting of the Edgar Allan Poe Society Jan. 27.

The chairman of the inter-society committee read a bill amounting to $2.70 for both Societies.

It was decided that we have two pins one to be a more expensive pin than the other, with the Society colors carried out in red pearls. The pins are to have E.A.P. on them.

The President appointed a glee Club.

February 10, 1912.

The Edgar Allan Poe Society had its regular meeting Feb. 10, 1912. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. It was decided that we should have the roll called hereafter.

"Ulalume" was selected as the motto for the Society.

A motion was made that the Secretary send a note of thanks to the Lanier Society for the lecture February 3, also that the Secretary send letters to the charter members of the Society giving them an opportunity to contribute something toward the Portrait fund.

This concluded the business for the evening and the following program was rendered:

1. History of Valentine — Lenna Fleetwood
2. Valentine Stories — Ethel Hunter
3. Music — Ora Cassidy (absent)
4. Valentines — Josephine Little (absent)
5. Poe's Valentine — A contest.

At conclusion there was a contest to see who could write the best rhyme. Della Gibbs won and was awarded the prize, a neat Valentine.
