April 13, 1912.

There was a meeting of the Edgar Allan Poe Society, in the Auditorium Saturday evening, April 13.

The Lanier Society and members of the Spring-term Class were present at this meeting. "Anne of Green Gables" was dramatized and Dickens' characters were represented. During the program Miss Ilma Meade sang a solo and the "Glee Club" sang.

There was then a business meeting of the Society in the Y. W. C. A. Room. Miss Louie Belle Pittman, Vice President of the Society took charge of the meeting as the President was absent.

The roll was called and the minutes of the last meeting read and approved. Two new members were initiated.

Mr. Austin offered a suggestion from the Inter-Society Committee, that the two Societies abandon the idea of giving a play during the Spring and begin preparing for one to be given about Thanksgiving of next year. Also that the Society place to the credit of the Portrait fund the unexpended money received during the year. This suggestion was accepted. A committee was appointed to see how we could withdraw the decision until further consideration.

A letter from the faculty was read telling of the number & manner of election of commencement Marshals. As these are to come from the Junior Class, the Secretary was instructed to post the names of the Juniors who are members of the Society and the election was postponed until another meeting.

Adjourned Meeting.

The "Edgar Allan Poe Society met Thursday afternoon April 18 to elect the commencement marshals. The following were elected:
Chief: Hattie Weeks, Josephine Little, Alice Medlin, Josephine Tillery, and Mildred Moore.
