Review of Year's Work - Oct 1911 - June 1912

The first meetings of the Society were purely business. The officers were elected in November.

The two Societies had a joint meeting in November and gave a Halloween Party. At this meeting the new members were initiated.

In December, we had a county celebration, each girl representing her county by a stunt. We sang the three State songs appropriate to the occasion and gave the toast.

The January meeting was a "Poe" meeting. Poe's life and several of his poems were read also some clippings from old newspapers.

In February, we had an interesting Valentine program consisting of the History of Valentine, Valentine Stories, and several contests. This meeting was announced by a very pretty poster.

In March we had a Dickens celebration. Several selections on Dickens were read and many of his characters were represented.

In April we dramatized "Anne of Green Gables" and Dickens's characters were represented by special request. The Lanier Society and members of the Spring term class were present at this meeting.

The Society pin has been selected they are now being worn.

"Ulalume" from Poe was selected as the Society motto.

A glee club has been organized which furnished music for the Society on several occasions.
