Minutes of Poe Society – Terms 1912-13.
Corinne H. Bright, Secretary.

The Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society met Saturday evening Oct. 12, 1912.

The roll was called and the minutes of the last meeting read and approved. After eliminating the clause pertaining to the election of officers and the first meetings of the Society.

The constitution was read by the Secretary and the following committee; Ethel Perry, Lillie Freeman, and Josephine Little was appointed to revise certain parts of the constitution that it seemed wise to change and make their report at the next meeting. These parts were as follows: pertaining to the election of officers from the one year class; Collection of dues and the appointment of the Programme committee.

The candidate names for membership were presented to the Society by the chairman of the Inter-Society Committee and were accepted by the society. A motion was made that the finances be straightened up and Treasurer report at next meeting, also report concerning the money paid out this year for fare for the play.

The Chairman of the inter Society committee reported that the committee had decided that the ~~invitation~~ initiation of new members should take place next Saturday night Oct. 19, 1912. and that they should decide upon the time and manner of the social part later.

As there was no other business the meeting adjourned.