The Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society met Oct. 19. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Misses Mary Moore, Kate Hatkins Cora Mae Griffin and Willie Lee Smith were appointed to help the inter-Society committee to make plans for the opening joint Society Reception.

After this the initiation took place, the chairman of the inter-Society committee presented the new members to the Society. The part of the constitution pertaining to membership was read by the Secretary, then the new members stood as their names were called and took the oath necessary for membership in the Society. Following this a review of last year's work was read. Then the President explained the purpose of the Society concerning the portraits of Gov. Jarvis and Mr. Ragsdale.

The Pres. presented to the Society the volumes of Poe's works given by Miss Graham. A motion was made and seconded that the Sec'ty write Miss Graham a note of thanks for the books.

There being no further business the program was then given as follows:

Ula lume - - - - - - Alice Medlin
Instrumental Solo - - - Miss Kice
Reading - - - - - - Mr. Austin

The Society then adjourned to meet the Laurens on the third floor for a dance.