On Saturday evening, Nov. 9, 1912 the Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society met with the main object in view of electing new officers.

The roll was called, the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The following new members were presented to the Society: Missses Nina Barnes, Clara Davis, Nettie Harris, Sallie Lassiter and Janie Webb. After having taken the oath, ~~of office~~ the business began. The Chairman, Ethel Perry, reported for the committee which had been appointed to revise certain parts of the constitution that it seemed wise to change.

The society then elected officers for the terms 1912-13.

Vice Pres. - - - - Blanche Lancaster.
Secretary - - - - Corinne H. Bright.
Tressurer - - - - Glenn Brooks.
Door Keeper - - - Eliza Branch.
Critic - - - - Mary Moore.

After these officers were inaugurated it was moved and seconded That the Pres. appoint one of our members as Society reporter to the daily paper of Greenville "The Reflector". Brownie Martin was appointed.

As there was no further business to come before the Society, the meeting adjourned.
