There was a business meeting of the Edgar Allan Poe Society on Feb. 9th The roll was called and the minutes of the previous meeting read and approved. The Society unanimously elected Mr. Jacquus Busbee as an honorary member. The date for the preliminary debate was voted upon, Feb. 24th but was later put off until March the first.

Brownie Martin was appointed chairman of a committee to see about the rules for the debate.

It was moved and carried that we publish our Constitution in a little booklet form. The committee appointed was: Viola Dixon, Lillie Freeman and Lalla Pritchard. It was discussed whether we should have two meetings or not, but it was decided that we have just one meeting a month.

The Society unanimously elected Mrs. Katie S. Bonner to honorary membership in the absence of Miss Davis. As there was no further business the meeting adjourned.

On the evening of March the first the Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society held their preliminary debate, on the subject: Resolved: That the time has come when the women of North Carolina should be granted suffrage on the same conditions as men. With Misses Lois Grubbs, Julia Jordan and Ida Sprinkle upholding the
