accepted. The query sent for debate was: Resolved: That the time has come when the women of North Carolina should be given the ballot on the same condition as men. The following girls were chosen to debate in the preliminary - Lois Grubbs, Julia Jordan, Ida Sprouill, Rosa Edgerton, Blanche Lancaster and Corinne Bright. The preliminary took place March the first. In this debate the affirmative won. Those chosen to represent this Society in the final debate were: Lois Grubbs, Rosa Edgerton and Corinne Bright.

Mr. Jacques Busbee, who painted our portraits of Gov. Jarvis and Mr. Ragsdale was unanimously elected as an honorary member of our Society.

The Poe Society has discussed fixing one of the rooms at the end of the hall on the third floor, for a Society Hall next year. Active work for this will be begun next Fall as parts of the plan have been completed.

In the March meeting of the Society papers on the Bulgarian War were read. On the evening of April 12th, the two Societies of this school held their debate. The negative (Lanier Society) was upheld by Misses Luella Lancaster, Lela Deans, and Bessie Doub while the affirmative consisting of Misses Rosa Edgerton Lois Grubbs and Corinne Bright represented the Poe Society. Much hard work was put up on both sides but the "Poes" came out victorious.