The Edgar Allen Poe Literary Society held its last regular meeting on the evening of Oct. 25. The roll was called and the minutes read and approved.

Two girls, Corrine Bishop and Jessie Cannon, who were away on the night of the formal initiation, took the oath and were admitted into the society.

For the benefit of the new members the constitution was read.

Nominations for the new officers were then in order. The results of the elections were as follows.

Vice. Pres. ..... Vera Mae Waters.
Sec'ty. ..... Clara L. Davis.
Treas. ..... Lucile O'Brien.
Critic ..... Helen Daniel
Door Keeper ..... Helen Guilford.

After the new officers were inaugurated the Pres. appointed Corinne Bright chairman of program comm. and Bettie Spencer chairman of the Room Comm.

As there was no further business the meeting was adjourned.

There was a call meeting of the E. A. P. society, Oct. 31. The object of the meeting was a request from the senior class for the co-operation of the society to help them get some books from which they could select a play. The books were to be left to the society after this year.

After discussing the subject the society agreed to give $2.00 for this purpose.

Blanch Lancaster was appointed chairman of the gym comm.

Heretofore we had had no permanent style of garment agreed upon, therefore Bessie Sorbenton was appointed chairman of a comm. to work out a style to be submitted to society for approval. Maud Lee was appointed to make the next poster.

Business over the meeting was adjourned.
