The Edgar Allen Poe held its regular meeting on the evening of Nov. 7. The roll was called and the minutes were read and approved.

Two new members, Ruth Brown and Mattie B. Alston took the vow and were admitted into the society.

Julia Jordan was appointed chairman of a comm. to work out a form for a booklet containing the constitution, by laws and a brief outline of program for next year.

The treasure reported that all the girls but about fifteen had paid their dues.

Mattie Cox was appointed chairman of the program comm for the Dec. meeting.

Maud Lee was appointed chairman of the poster comm. for the year.

A motion that some money be set aside for stationary and stamps for the use of the society was passed.

Business ended the meeting adjourned to the third floor where the following Poe program was rendered to the enjoyment of all present.

stories - "The Tell Tale Heart" ..... Lucile O'Brien.
"The Murder in the Rue Morgue ... Martha Lancaster.
Inst. Solo. "Little Romance" ..... Alice Herring.
story. "The Black Cat" ..... H. E. Austin.
Inst Solo. "Traumerei" ..... Clara L. Davis.

A call meeting of the E.A.P. Society was held Nov. 14, to discuss getting the books for the senior class. Miss Baggett withdrew her motion to appoint a comm. from the society to see about this, therefore the comm. was to come from the senior class only.

As some of the new members did not understand just what the secret proceeding of the society were, it was explained to them that all things pertaining to the business of the society were secret and also the form of initiation is secret.

Business complete the meeting was adjourned.