The Edgar Allen Poe Society met on the evening of Jan. 10. 1914. A new member Miss Ida McKelthan took the vow and was admitted into the Society befor the roll was called and the minutes read and approved.

The Chairman of the Booklet Comm. stated that she would submit a form of Booklet for Societies approval at the next meeting.

The question of having the Baltimore musicians down in the spring was reopened and it was finally decided that we would have them some time in April.

A move that the Poe Society challeng the Lanier's for a debate was carried and a comm. to work out a query was appointed.

As our bulletin board was getting into a bad condition a comm., Martha Lancaster chairman, was appointed to see that it was fixed.

As there was no further business the meeting was adjourned.

A Call meeting of the E. A. P. Society was held Feb. 3. for the purpose of presenting to the Society a challenge for a debate from the Lanier Society. The challenge was accepted but the meeting was adjourned until Feb. 10. to decide whether we should take the affirmative or the negative.

The adjourned meeting of the E. A. P. Society was held Feb. 10. It was decided that we should take the affirmative and the chairman of the debating comm. presented the names of the girls for the preliminary debate Vera Mae Waters, Ernestine Forbes, Bettie Spencer, Connie Bishop, Julia Jordon and Lucile O'Brien.

The date for the preliminary debate was set for the fourth Sat. night in Feb.

A motion that we have a referee on the stage during the debate to collect points to help the debators in their reputation
