"Call meeting com".

Vice pres. was asked to speak to the pres. of the Junior Society about this so that they would not consider that we took an advantage of them.

As there was no further business to come before the society the meeting was adjourned.

On the evening of Feb. 14. the E. A. P. Literary Society held its last regular meeting. The roll was called and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The Chairman of the Program committee explained fully the different clubs the society had been divided into. They were as follows: Music, art, dramatic, debating & reading clubs. Each girl is allowed to become a member of any two clubs.

A form for the constitution booklet was presented to the Society and was accepted as satisfactory. It was decided to have just enough booklets printed for the members this yr.

The chairman of the beautification committee reported that Mr. Wright had given us the plot around the dining room but that he had rather we use flowers until he could try out the natural shrubbery some where else.

As the chairman of the bulletin bd. comm. reported that Mr. Holmes could not get the material to fix the board with the society accepted Miss Hardy's offer to get a carpenter she knew of to fix it.

As there was no further business the meeting was turned over to the chairman of the program comm.

The program was opened by an Inst. solo, played by Miss Alice Herring. Miss Lucile O'Brian then
