Minutes of E. A. Poe Literary Society 1914-1815
Lucile O'Brian. (Secretary)

The Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society held its regular monthly meeting on the evening of Oct., 24th, 1914. The roll was called and the minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

Three new members, Sarah Ellis, Lily Barco and Annie Marie Kittrell took the vow and were admitted into the society.

The Secretary then read a review of last years work and the constitution for the benefit of the new girls.

As the plot around the dining room has been given to us by Mr. Wright and no definite plans have been made for cultivating the plot, the president appointed a committee to work out some plan. Helene Jaynes, chairman, and Fannie Lee Spier and Loraine Arendel to work with her for this purpose.

Clara Davis, Sadie Bland, and Alice Herring were appointed as the standing poster committee for the year.

Marguerite Wallace, Hallie Jones, and Sophia Mann were appointed as a room committee to see that the room which we met in each time is in good condition.

Miss Lois Reid was appointed to order any pins that are wanted this year.

Lucile O'Brian and Bettie Stanfield were appointed to see Sam White and to ask him not to book any plays for about a week before the play "Hiawatha" which is to be given December 7. This was to give our play the advantage of a good house.

Sallie Hooks, Elma Roper, and Florence Perry were appointed as a nominating committee to take nominations for the assistant Editor of the magazine.
