Treasurer - - - - - - - - - - Mary Wooten
Sergeant - - - - - - - - Sallie Hooks
Critic - - - - - - - - - Kate Tillery
There being no further business the society adjourned.

A call meeting of the E. A. Poe Society was held Wednesday Oct. 28th, 1914 for the purpose of electing an assistant editor of the magazine. Miss Pearle Brown was elected to fill this place.

Bettie Spencer, chairman of the program committee, ask that the Poe meeting which should be held the second regular meeting, might be postponed until January as "Hiawatha" needed all the time the girls could spare. This request was unanimously granted. Miss Spencer also stated that Dr C. Alphonso Smith said that he had a picture of Poe's mother, which he would give the society if we wished it. The president asked the secretary to write and ask Dr. Smith if he still had the picture and would please send to us.

No further business the meeting adjourned.

The Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society held its monthly meeting Saturday Evening, Nov. 15th. 1914.

The meeting was called to order by the president and the roll was called. The minutes were read, corrected, and approved.

Miss Spencer stated that there were five clubs of the society (ie) debating, music, art, dramatic, and reading club. Every girl in the society should belong to two of these clubs and she would like to have their names for same by the following Wednesday.

The president stated that twenty one girls had failed to pay their dues and asked them to attend to this before Monday if possible as we did not want any members of bad standing this year.