The committee for advertising "Hiawatha" made a very favorable report.

As the society is going to send announcements of the play to the old girls, the president ask for volunteers to assist in designing these. The girls responded very readily to this and were asked to meet Monday for this purpose.

Miss Jones, chairman of the beautifying committee asked for ten dollars ($10.00) for purpose of buying shrubs and bulbs for dining room plot. The vote was carried unanimously for this amt.

The chairman of the pin committee asked that the girls hand in their names as early as possible for pins.

The president read a letter from Mr. W.S. Best asking that we give him our orders for pins this year. It was left open for the president to see him and get his prices.

The chairman of the poster committee stated that they had one poster finished for "Hiawatha" and were going to make about twenty five.

Miss Spencer stated that she had the program outlined for the year.

The question was brought up about the booklet with the constitution in it and after a good discussion on the subject, a motion was made to withdraw the idea of the booklet, which was seconded and carried unanimously not to have any booklet.

The report of the critic was very good and it filled us all with enthusiasm.

An invitation was then read from Lanier's inviting us to attend a little play they were giving Of course we accepted without any discussion.

No further business the meeting was adjourned.