The Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society held its monthly meeting, Saturday evening Dec. 12 th. 1914. The meeting was called to order by president, the roll called, and minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

The president stated that Mary Moore a former member of our society, said under no circumstances give Mr. Best a monopoly on our pins. The society as a whole did not seem to think this would make any difference and still ask president to see Mr. Best. The secretary then read a letter from Stephen Lane Folger, the man who has always taken our orders for pins, in which he ask that we give him our orders for Christmas. The society asked that no step be taken concerning this until report from Mr. Best is given.

Miss Brown stated that the advertising for Hiawatha amounted to twenty dollars ($20) but Mr. Roulett kindly consented to cut the amount to sixteen and one half dollars ($16.50).

The chairman of poster committee reported that she had had fifteen posters made for "Hiawatha". The expenses for these amounted to two, one half dollars ($2.50)

Bettie Stanfield reported the number of complimentary tickets given by society for play. Among them were two to each representative as the legislature meets soon and we hope to gain something from them.

The treasurer reported the funds taken in from the play. Two hundred seventy two dollars ($272) taken in. Expenses one hundred eighty seven

A motion was made that we take one dollar from treasury and pay for heads that were left over after play.

Pattie Johnston presented a dollar to the society from Miss Gayle for benefit of our fund for furnishing our society hall. It was unanimously that secretary write Miss Gayle a note of thanks.
