The Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society held its regular monthly meeting Feb. 13 1915. The president called the meeting to order; the roll was called, minutes read and approved. Sadie Bland acting as secretary. The treasurer made a splendid report and from this report we drew the conclusion that we will have no members of bad standing. as there was no further business the meeting was turned over to the preliminary debaters to "use as they saw fit". The following girls composed the the preliminary debaters

Affirmative	Negative.
Hallie Jones	Mary Secrest
Lucile O'Brian	Martha Lancaster
Alice Herring	Lucile Ellis.

Misses Jenkins and Davis and H. E. Austin were present to act as judges. They were afraid of the different parties (as they stated it) and would render no decision in favor of either side but would choose three of the speakers for the final debate between the Bacon Society and the Poe Society. Martha Lancaster, Alice Herring, Lucile O'Brian were chosen to represent the Poe's.

The critic then made a splendid report.

The March meeting of the Poe society was held on Saturday of the second week. Meeting was called to order by president roll called, minutes read by secretary and approved by society.

The question of material for the debate was discussed and girls were asked to give names of any source from which material could be secured. The secretary then read a letter from Emma Cobb (former president) expressing her desire for a successful year in every thing we undertook for the year. It was then moved and carried that the secretary
