"Lanier Society", in which there was a challenge for a debate between the two Societies, sometime in the coming March. It was unanimously voted that we accept the challenge.

Those who wanted pins were greatly delighted to know that they could get them before they went home for Christmas.

Then the meeting was turned over to the program committee, which gave the Society three very interteining pieces, which were as follows:-

Song - "Jumetime" Helen Paschal.
Musical Duet { Margarerite Wallace
Martha Lancaster.
"Sallie Ann's Experience". (Rec.) Anna M. White.

After a favorable report from the critic, the meeting adjourned.

5. The E. A. Poe Society held its regular business meeting Jan. 8, 1916. The meeting was called to order by the president, the roll was called, and the minutes read and approved. As this was our first meeting of the new year, we were glad to welcome one of our old girls, Sallie Hooks, into the Society.

First it was discussed whether or not the girls should be compelled to come to Society meetings. It was moved and seconed that a fea of twenty-five cents be put upon all members of the Society who stayed away without a good excuse.

Our President gave a very favorable report from Mr. Wright concerning the planting of the campus.

The report from the critic was very favorable, and as there was no further business, the meeting adjourned.
