Call Meeting.

There was a call meeting of the E. A. Poe Society Feb. 10, 1916, for the purpose of choosing two new debaters, as Hallie Jones and Helen Belle resigned their place as preliminary debaters for various reasons given. Lizzie Stuart and Fannie Lee Speir were chosen in their places. Later Jennie McGlohon took Fannie Lee Speir's place, and Nannie Mae Brown took Juanita Weedon's place.

---

7. On Feb. 12, 1916, instead of having the regular business meeting of the E. A. Poe Society, the hour was turned over to the program committee, who gave the Society a very intertaining play, "In the Absence of Susan". The Sanier Society was invited to be present, and everyone seemed to enjoy it.

---

8. The E. A. Poe Society met as usual on Feb. 26, 1916, but instead of having our regular business meeting, we had our preliminary debate. The following girls were chosen for the final debate:- Nannie Mae Brown, Floca Hutchins, and Lizzie Stuart.

---

9. The E. A. Poe Society held its regular business meeting Mar. 11, 1916. The meeting was called to order by the President, the roll was called, and the minutes read and approved.

Miss Evelyn Sutton took the vow of the Society, and it was glad to welcome her as a member.