10. On Mar. 25, 1916; instead of having the regular business meeting of the E. A. Poe Society, the evening was turned over for the annual debate. The judges were Lawyer Harden, Lawyer Pierce, and Rev. Mr. Asken. They decided unanimously in favor of the Poe Society.

11. The E. A. P. Society did not hold its regular meeting on Apr. 8, 1916, as the final rehearsal was given of the Senior Play.

12. The E. A. Poe Society held its regular business meeting Apr. 22, 1916. The meeting was called to order by the Pres., and then Rosa Yopp took the vow of the Society and became a welcomed member. The roll was called and the minutes read and approved.

The following girls were nominees of the faculty for the Editor-in-chief of the Training School Magazine: Jessie Bishop, Gertrude Cook, and Fannie Lee Speir. Fannie Lee Speir was elected.

Nominations were then in order for the chief marshall for commencement. Juanita Weedon was elected. For assistant marshalls, Helen Gardner, Jessie Bishop, Lucile Bullock, and Nannie Mae Brown were elected.

Next Mary Secrest presented to the Society an recommendation from the Inter-society committee stating that the Society Pres. be elected the 2nd. Saturday night in April, and that the Pres. appoint the necessary committee for the follow-