On the afternoon of Jan. 25, 1917 there was a called meeting of the Edgar Allan Poe Society.

Two letters from the Lanier Society were by the Sec. One was an invitation to attend a lecture to be given Feb. 3, 1917 in honor of Laniers birthday and stated that they wished this to take the place of our regular meeting for the 10th as they were giving this date to the Y. W. C. A. The other letter stated that they had taken the affirmative side of the debate question as to when the debate should come off was introduced, discussed and left over. There was a report from the Inter-Society Com. stating that there was a conflict about discussions concerning faculty membership. Motion was made and carried that our decision be sent in just as it is.

As there was no further business the meeting adjourned.
