The Edgar Allan Poe Society held it's regular business meeting Jan. 27, 1917. The roll was called and the minutes were read and approved

Question concerning date for the preliminary debate was discussed It was suggested that we entertain the Ladies since they were planning to entertain us. A motion was made and carried to the following effect: That the Pres. appoint a committee to look into the matter of entertaing the Ladies.

As our Doorkeeper was out of school a motion was made and carried that the Pres. appoint one. Lucy Clements was appointed.

As there was no further business the meeting was turned over to the program committe and a very interesting program was rendered.

There was a called meeting of the Edgar Allan Poe Society Feb 6 1917.

A motion was made and carried that we pay Mr Busbee the entire amount we owe him, now (Feb 6, 1917)

A committe was appointed to see Mr Wright about when we could have the debate.

Discussions about date for preliminary debate and judges for final

"

A motion was made and carried that we have three gentlemen judges from Greenville for final debate