A motion was made and carried that the debaters select one judge, the Lanier's one and the Inter-Society one.

Motion made and carried that we write a letter of appreciation or thanks to the Lanier Society for the address by Mr. Harrison Feb. 3, 1917.

As there was no further business the meeting adjourned.

Feb. 24, 1917 the regular business meeting of the Edgar Allen Poe Society was held.

Because of the preliminary debate there was very little business transacted.

There was a report from the Inter-Society committee concerning the debate

Discussion about date for debate and whether or not we invite the public.

A suggestion to the following effect was made: That we have a trophy for the victor in the Inter-Society debates.

The girls who were selected by the judges, Mr Austin, Misses Graham and Fenlsins, as final debaters were Gladys Yates, Estelle Jones and Bertie Allen and Luna Sassitta as alternate.

As there was no further business the meeting adjourned.
