The regular business meeting of the E. A. Poe Society was held Apr 14 1917

Roll was called and minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

Ruth Fenton, Mary Renfrow and Ruth Cooke had been nominated for business manager of the Training School quarterly. Ruth Fenton was elected.

Nominations were then in order for new president, Annie Bridgeman, Estelle Jones, Bess Tillett, Violette Stilley and Bernie E. Allen were nominated. Estelle Jones was elected. She took the oath of office and the meeting was turned over to her.

Miss Brown ex-president told the society how much she enjoyed being president.

Report from Jour on entertainment of seniors.

Motion was made and carried that the Treas get the names of the girls who were absent and find why.

Suggestions as follows were made: 1. That next year we make a closer study of Poe's life than we have done before.
2. That next year we have debates in society so as to be prepared for inter-society debate
3. That we give Miss Brown a book of Poe's works.

There were reports from treas and critic.

No further business, meeting adjourned.
