The regular business meeting of the Edgar Allan Poe Society was held May 2, 1917.

The roll was called and minutes of last meeting read and approved.

There was a report from Inter-Society comittee. Discussion followed.

A motion was made and carried that the debaters, with the Inter-Society Committee select the final judges for the future Inter-Society debates.

There was a report of committee on selection of a present for former Pres. Miss Brown. They had obtained five volumes of Poe's tales for her.

It was suggested that we entertain our old girls. A committee was appointed. Discussion followed. A suggestion was made concerning a Society Song also.

Report from treasurer was made

A com. consisting of the following girls was appointed to look after the flowers during the summer: Bernie Allen, Lizzie & Ethel Smith and Maude Lister.

We had one of our old members with us, Miss Lucile O'Brian

Several seniors made short talks in which they told how much they had enjoyed the Society work, and wished the Society much success in the future.

As there was no further business the meeting was turned over to the program committee. We had a delightful evening on the campus back of the dining room. By the light of Japanese lanterns we played games, listened to Victrola music and a selection from Poe.
