so the meeting was turned over to the program committee. A very enjoyable program was rendered.

There was a call meeting of the Society Jan. 14, 1918 for the purpose of choosing a side in the Inter-Society debate. The President explained the query to the girls and the affirmative side was chosen.

The Edgar Allen Poe Society held its regular business meeting Jan. 26, 1918
The roll was called and the meeting was turned over to the program committee before the business was taken up. After the program the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.
There was a report from the Inter-Society.
The following girls were elected for the preliminary debate.

Susie Faulkner	Winnie Smith
Rosa Vaughook	Lois Hester
Beulah Thomas	Sue Bert Morrill
Mary McClean	Maude Poole
Katherine Boney	Helen McLaughorn.

There was no further business, so the meeting adjourned.

The Edgar Allen Poe Society held its regular business meeting Feb. 8, 1918
There was a report from the Inter-Society Committee. Miss Allen stated that she had at last got the Liberty Loan Bonds.
There was a discussion about the selecting of the judges for the final debate. A motion was made