and carried that we leave this to the Inter-Society Committee

A committee to get the judges for the preliminary debate was appointed as follows

Willie Jackson
May Renfrew
Gladys Yates

The meeting was then turned over to the program committee and a very delightful Valentine program was given.

The Edgar Allan Poe Society held its regular business meeting Feb. 23, 1918.

The minutes were read and approved.

There was a motion that we dispense with all business until next meeting and have the preliminary debate.

The judges for this debate were Miss Morris, Miss McCowen and Mr. Austin.

The debaters chosen for the final debate were -

Sue Best Marrill
Mary McClean
Beulah Thomas - Alternate

Mr. Austin told the Society some of the history of the Commission form of government.

There was no further business so the meeting adjourned.
