The Edgar Allen Poe Society held its regular business meeting on the evening of March 10, 1908.

The minutes were read and approved.

The president explained to the Society about excused and unexcused abscences, and the fine for unexcused abscences.

Miss Allen reported for the Inter-Society committee. She said that the cup which was to be awarded the winning society in the debate had come. She said it was purchased from Tiffany for $35.00.

The following committees were appointed:

Yell Com. (for debate)
Elizabeth Evans, Chm.
Maude Poole
Katherine Lister

Com. for decorating Auditorium
Lucye Buffalow
Ina McGlohon
Ruth Cooke.

A committee of the following girls was also appointed to look into the matter and consult the advisory board about admitting a girl into our Society whose name was drawn the first of the year by the Saniers.

Evelyn Williford
Katherine Boney
Lucye Buffalow

A motion was made and carried that the Sec'y send a formal note of thanks to the Saniers for the play given in our honor. And also that she write notes of thanks to Misses Leona
