Minutes of the E. A. P. Literary Society – 1918 – 19
Marguerite Hensley – Sec.

The first regular business meeting of the Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society was held on the evening of Nov. 9. 1918. The meeting was called to order by the president. The roll was called, and the minutes read and approved. Miss Rosa Hooks who was away on the night of the formal initiation took the oath and was admitted into society. Miss Graham very clearly stated to us the order in which a business meeting should be conducted when electing officers. Nominations for the new officers were then in order, Misses Vanhook, Hart, + Nixon were appointed "Tellers" by the president.

The results of the elections were as follows:

Vice president ..... Elsie Hines
Secretary ..... Marguerite Hensley
Treasure ..... Carrie Vanhook
Critic ..... Rosa Vanhook
Door Keeper ..... Christine Evans.

After the officers were elected our president told us her "big secret." Dr. Birckhead of Baltimore was coming to lecture to us on Nov. 21. – We were to send the Laniers a cordial invitation. The public was also invited to be present.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Marguerite Hensley, Sec.

There was a call meeting of the Poe Society on Friday evening Nov. 15, 1918 The president told the society about the handsome flag that was to be presented to E. C. I. I. S. on the evening of Nov. 21st Plans were also made for as many girls as possible to pick cotton every afternoon to help defray expenses.

Miss Muzzey then told us, interesting things of Dr Hugh Birchead that we might better appreciate him on the following Thur. p. m.
