It was suggested that invitations be mailed to near by towns and to prominent men of Greenville.
The secretary mailed seventy invitations.
The meeting adjourned.

Marguerite Hensley Sec.

There was a regular meeting of the Poe Society on Nov. 23, 1918. The Roll was called and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Misses Aline Cowell, and Mina Howell took the oath and were admitted into society.

Under old business, Miss Vanhook said she had been requested by the Library committee to insist that the girls observe rules concerning books in the Library, and stressed especially the behavior in Library.

The president then talked to us of Dr. Birckhead and just how proud we are to have secured him. Our expenses for Dr. Birckhead are $75:00 — The flag $60.64, Flowers $6.00 making a total of $141.64. Mr. Wright gave us $25.00 to show his appreciation for the securing of such an excellent speaker for the Training School. Miss Muffly gave us $10.00 on the flag. Leaving a total debt of $106.64. The president commended the publicity committee for their splendid work in making posters and sending news items to the News papers, about Dr. Birckhead. Dr. & Mrs. Carr carried the committee to meet the train in their automobile, and the Society is indebted to Miss Muffley's friend, Miss White of Baltimore for securing the handsome flag for us, and at a reduction. It was suggested that notes of thanks be sent these friends.

The next thing in order of business was the reading of the appointed comm— They are as follows;