There was a regular meeting of the Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society in the Auditorium on Saturday evening, Jan. 25.'19. The Society was called to order by the president. The roll was called and previous minutes read and approved. Misses Pauline Sanders, Aline Whichard and Geraldine Moore took the oath and were admitted into the Society. The next thing in order of business was report of committees. Miss Mary McLean as chairman of the committee on Debate, asked if the Society would be willing to let the committee decide upon the Query for debate. This was made a motion and carried. The president appointed Misses Etheridge and Iola Finch to get names of those girls interested in debating. The chairman of Inter-Society committee stated that the illness of the Faculty advisors had prevented their meeting. The Flower bed committee reported through Miss Vanhook that a requisition had been sent into Mr. Wright to have the flower bed enlarged. She asked that if Mr. Wright could not secure help that the Society members do the work. She also stated that Red and White Poppie seeds had been ordered for the bed. The Treasure reported that the balance in Treasury was and she moved that Miss Muffly be paid at once for her loan to the Society. The motion carried.

There being no further business the meeting was turned over to the program committee.

Note: A very pleasant surprise was in store for the society, at the beginning of the program. Miss Elizabeth Davis
