composed a Society Song, called "Poe psalm" Miss Ray provided 100 copies for the Society, which will be distributed and taken up at each meeting.
The Society extended a rising vote of thanks to Miss Davis for the song.
Marguerite Hensley. Secretary

There was a regular meeting of the Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society on Saturday evening Feb. 8, 1919 in the Y. W. C. A. Hall. The meeting was called to order by the President. The roll was called and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Miss Lina Bell Simmonds took the oath and was admitted into Society.
The Treasure reported that the debt we owed Miss Muffled had been paid, and the seeds had been paid for to plant the flower bed. The chairman of the Inter-Society committee reported that the Laniers did not seem to favor the plan of having the marshals act on all public occasions, but that they would put it before the Society. The chairman of flowerbed committee reported that the flower bed was planted. Miss Finch read the names of the girls who had volunteered for the debate. Miss McLean stated that the Query sent to the Laniers for consideration is as follows, Resolved: "That it would be beneficial to North Carolina to establish a commission for securing an increased immigrant population in the state." The Laniers accepted the Query and selected the Affirmative side.
Miss Hines said she thought the Society should have a bookcase of Poe's works in the library, and that it be open to all who wished to read, and not be