There was a regular meeting of the Edgar Allan Poe Society on Sat. evening April 26, 1919. Because of the absence of the secretary the Roll call and minutes were omitted.

Since this was the night for the election of a new president, and a Business Manager for the Quarterly: The first thing in order of business was the election of a president.

Misses Irma Fugua and Annie James were the nominees.

Miss Irma Fugua was elected President for next year.

The next thing in order of business was the election of a Business Manager - Misses Gladys Baum, Blanche Farabow and Ruby Garris were submitted by the English Dept. Miss Baum was elected.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

There was a call meeting of the E.A.P. Society in Room 4 on Thursday May, 8, 1919 for the purpose of deciding what we should give our ex-president in appreciation of her faithful services -

It was decided that we give Miss Hester a Poe Pin.

There was a call meeting Fri. May 23, 1919 in Room 4, to decide on a Contribution for the Salvation Army Drive. It was decided that the Society give $2.00 to this cause. There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

M. Hensley Sec'y