There was a regular business meeting of the Edgar Allan Poe Society on May 16th 1919. The meeting was called to order by the new president, the roll was called and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The business feature of the meeting was the election of a marshal ~~to~~ take Dearie Simmond's place. Misses Albriton and Butt were nominated and Miss Butt was elected.

The secretary then read a letter from Mrs. Carr, expressing her thanks for the tickets, and pledging her loyalty to the Society.

Miss Hester - our ex-president - told the scuity in her charming manner how much she appreciated her pin and how she loved the Society.

There was no program, since we were invited to a play given by the Lanier Society.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Marguerite Hensley, Secy

There was a regular business meeting of the Edgar Allan Poe Society on the campus, May, 10th 1919.

The meeting was called to order by the president, and the roll was called and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The president called for reports from the various committees. The chairman of the comm- to get letters for the board reported what a time she had trying to get the address and that Mr. Spillman had finally given her an address. She wished to ask the Society if she must go ahead and order the letters and have them sent to Summer School. She was directed to