order the letters and have them sent to Miss Elizabeth Bass, who will be here during the Summer Term.

There was no old business, but under new business came the election of an assistant Editor for the Quarterly. Misses Farabow, Garris, & Mercer, were nominated, and Miss Blanche Farabow was elected.

The following committees were appointed by the president for next year —

Advisory committee: Miss Muffly, Miss Graham, Miss Elizabeth Davis.

Inter-Society Comm.: Ruby Mercer, Carrie Evans Eloise Tarkenton.

Poster Comm: Julia Taylor, Carrie Vanhook Mina Howell, Ethel Southerland

Social " ; Callie Ruffin, Camilla Gillard Geraldine Moore, Madge Blackley.

Flower Bed " ; Ruth Dean, Ruby Daughtridge, Lucy Kornegay, Gladys Arnold Program " : Elizabeth Bass, Marguerite Hendley Mabel Wommack, Mildred McGowan Christine Evans.

Room " : Ethel Gittman, Rhoda Peel Annie Bell Grant, Margaret Alston.

Since there was two of our old Society members present, the president gave them a hearty welcome and called on them for a talk. Miss Spencer and Miss Jackson, expressed their joy in being back again.

Miss Lois Hester then expressed the feeling of the Seniors for the Society and told the members how they held them in deepest love and would always think of the Society as the closest tie.

There being no further business the meeting was turned over to the program committee.

Marguerite Hendley Sec'y.