There was a call meeting of the E. A. P. Society, October, 8, 1919. for the purpose of making plans for initiation. At a meeting of the Inter-Society committee it was proposed by the Poe Society that the hazing feature of the annual initiation be abolished. This was put in the form of a motion and was adopted by both Societies.

The following committees were appointed by the president:

1. A committee to order cream and wafers.
2. A special committee of ten to serve the night of Initiation.

The room committee was reminded to decorate the Y. W. C. A and Recreation Hall for the event.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Marguerite Hensley-Sec.

On Saturday evening, Oct. 11, 1919, the Annual Initiation of the Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society, was held in the Y. W. C. A, and Recreation Halls.

At seven oclock the officers and old members of the Society assembled in the Y. W. C. A. Hall. Promptly at 7:15 the doors were opened to the new members, who were ushered into the presence of the Society in groups of ten. At the table were seated the president, Secretary and Chairman of program committee. The new members were asked to Kneel around the table and take the oath of allegiance to the society. The entire Society Stood during this service. The president made an appropiate talk to each group, about the oath