where merry music and soft red lights reigned supreme. The tables were uniquely arranged and decorated in baskets of Red and White flowers, the society colors. Refreshments consisting of red and white ice cream with wafers were served. Here the girls got acquainted with each other and learned in an informal way something of the social phase of society.

There was a call meeting of the Poe Society Oct. 22, 1919, for the purpose of discussing whether or not the Society should adopt an Armenian baby at $60.00 per year. No final step was taken and this business was left over until the regular business meeting.

The president announced that the flower beds were being made between Administration Building and East Dormitory. Miss Rowe chairman of committee to purchase fern for Society reported that a large fern could be purchased for about $5.00. It was moved and carried that the fern be purchased at once.

The president then explained that at the next Society meeting which would be Oct 25, the following officers would be elected, from the various classes.

Critic	from	Senior	Class
V. Pres. & Sec.	"	Junior	"
Treasurer	"	Soph.	"
Door Keeper	"	Freshman	"

The meeting adjourned as there was no further business
