Minutes of the E. A. P. Literary Society - 1919 - '20
Helen Bahnson, Secretary.

The first regular business meeting of the Poe Society, after initiation, was held in the Auditorium October 25, 1919. The meeting was called to order by the president, the roll was called and the minutes of the previous meetings were read and approved.

Misses Nixon and Bacom who were absent during initiation were admitted into the Society and took the oath of allegiance to the Society.

As is customary at the first meeting with the new members, the Constitution was read by the Secretary.

Since this was the night for the election of officers, the President asked miss Graham to explain some of the Parliamentary Rules necessary to an election. Miss Graham very clearly stated to us the order in which a business meeting should be conducted when electing officers. The results of the election were as follows:

Vice president	Ethel Pittman
Secretary	Helen Bahnson
Treas	Louise Whichard
Critic	Marguerite Hensley
Doorkeeper	Anna Belle Wood

The next thing in the order of the business was the inauguration of officers.

Since the election of officers took so much time, and the new members had prepared a program for the night, it was moved that we have an adjourned meeting to be called at any time the President wished.

The meeting adjourned.

There was a call meeting of the Poe Society on October 29, 1919, in the Auditorium, with the president in charge.

Two of the marshals did not return this year so two girls were elected to act as marshals. These are Misses Wommack and Ruffin.

Misses Pippin and Croom, who were not
