present at our initiation, took the oath of the Society and were admitted as members.

The matter of dividing the Society into clubs for the purpose of conducting all literary exercises was thoroughly discussed and was decided against by the Society.

The Society voted to adopt an Armenian War Baby through contributions from its members. The amount necessary for the baby's support for one year is $60.00.

The meeting adjourned.

Helen Bahnson, Sec.

There was a regular business meeting of the Poe Society on November 8, 1919 in the Y. W. C. A. Hall. In the absence of the president the vice-president presided over the meeting. After the Roll Call, the minutes of the previous meetings were read and approved by the Society.

Reports were given by the various Committees as follows: The Treasurer $73.98 collected as dues; $23.50 for the War Baby's support and $18.50 pledged for the Baby. The Flower Bed Chairman reported bulbs and violets planted and told us she hoped to soon order red and white roses; the Chairman of the Programe committee reported that she was arranging for a play to be given on the Saturday night following Thanksgiving; the Chairman of the Poster Committee reported that she needed more help and new materials.

The Secretary read a letter from Miss Hines (a last year's graduate) and was instructed by the Society to write Miss Hines, telling her about the work of the Society this year and thanking her for the dollar she enclosed.

It was moved and carried that we make our society 100% Red Cross Member
