ship. Miss Hensley explained the work of the Red Cross in time of Peace and told us how we might be given an opportunity to earn our dollar with which to join.

The chairman of the fern committee told us that Miss Muffley had contributed one dollar each on the two ferns and that although she did not know how much they would cost we are going to keep them.

Helen Bahnson Sec.

1919. The Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society held its regular meeting in the Auditorium on Nov. 27, 1919. After the Roll Call and after the minutes had been approved by the Society, reports were called for from the various departments, which were as follows: Treasurer, Expenses $6.00 for ferns, $1.35 for poster Committee Put in Treasury $17.15. Bal in Treasury $81.63. Collected for Baby's support $31.65, and pledged for Baby's support $17.00. From the fern Committee, pd $8.00 for ferns but took only $6.00 from Treasury.

It was moved and Carried that the Society Continue its work of Cleaning the Halls of the Dormitories. The Society is paid $10.00 per week for this work

It was moved and Carried that no limit be put on the Amount spent for the flower bed.

New Committees were appointed as follows = Room Committee Blanche Cannon and Margaret Sidbury.

Poster Committee Miss Peel and Bonnie Boswell. Flower Bed Ruby Haughtridge Gladys Arnold and Mary Crinkley.