distinct comparison was made of the light airy feelings produced by certain words and the sombre, mournful feelings of others and the noble courageous feelings from still others. Several visitors were present from the Lanier Society, for the program. The Society voted a rising vote of thanks for the splendid entertainment given them by the program Committee.

The roll was called and the minutes of last meeting read and approved. Two girls, Misses Whitt and Perry took the oath of allegiance to and became members of our Society.

The Treasurer reported $269.34 in the Treasury. The flower bed Committee reported work done on beds the previous week.

It was suggested by Misses Muffly and Graham that each year a date be set for the following year to have some great speaker address the Community and School thru the Society's efforts — or some other worthy ~~effort~~ entertainment. This suggestion was discussed — moved and carried by the Society.

The president explained that General Faison had written her that it might be possible for him to be with us the following Wednesday Night.

Miss Graham told us something of General Faison. He was leader of the 60th Brigade and Commander of the 30th Division

The Critic offered a very favorable report.

The meeting adjourned

Helen Bahnson Sec.