On March 27, 1920 a business meeting of the Poe Society was held in the Auditorium. The roll was called and the minutes read and approved.

The treasurer reported $208 in the treasury. Program Committee expect to have an Edgar Allan Poe Program after the debate. Flower Bed Committee had ordered roses and wished for volunteers to transplant poppies on Monday.

Miss Rowell of Stationery Committee said she intended getting a hand-press for girls to use and plain black and white for business letters.

The president reported that General Lawton had written it was impossible for him to come to E. C. I. S. this year.

The Society decided to keep our big fern in Miss Graham's room except on public occasions.

The Society appointed Misses Baucom Dean and Albritton to get red and white roses for the debate.

A Committee, consisting of Misses Mercer, Pittard and Hawkins, was appointed to get programs for the debate.

The critic reported favorable behavior.

The meeting was turned over to the Program Committee.

Note: The debate had been put off on account of a Lanier debater withdrawing from school.

Helen Bahnson, Sec.