There was a regular business meeting of the E. A. Poe Literary on April 10, 1920 in the Auditorium. After the roll call the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The committees reported as follows: The treasurer — $2 58 in the treasury; the flower bed chairman — that poppies had been transplanted; the Poster chairman that extra materials were needed for new posters. It was adopted by the Society that the Poster Chairman always have the materials necessary for good posters. Miss Blackley reported for Miss Rowe (who was absent) that the stationery had been ordered.

The President reported that the Debate had been postponed again and it was finally decided to have it on the 24th of April — in two weeks. It was moved and carried that we invite people from town to the debate if Mr. Wright permits. Miss Grace Strassburgu was elected editor-in-chief of the quarterly.

The president told us that the next meeting would be the time to elect the president for the coming year.

A letter from Miss Elizabeth Davis was read, full of encouragement about winning the debate.

As there was no further business the meeting adjourned.

Helen Bahnson, secretary.

There was a short business meeting of the Poe Society on April 24th 1920 in Room II. The Roll was called but the minutes were postponed until a later meeting. It was moved and carried that the Society have Miss Riggs from Chet. who plays the harp to come at the time Annetta Ribecca — soprano comes
